Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- 1) How do I enrol?
By completing the QM&T student application form and paying the fees.
- 2) Do I need to be a CQI member?
Yes. Before starting any of the CQI courses, you need to become a CQI member. Please contact CQI membership department or register online www.thecqi.org. Once you have a CQI membership number, complete the QM&T student application form.
- 3) Is there an entry requirement?
Other than a basic qualification in Maths and English (i.e. GCSE or 'O' Level), there is no other entry requirement.
- 4) When does the course start?
At anytime. The limiting factors are the exam dates or the assignment submission deadlines.
- 5) Where do I sit the exam?
You can sit the exams either as an external candidate at your local college, university, educational institute or at CQI's Headquarters in London. Depending on where you will be sitting the exam, there will be an additional charge made by the centre, paid directly to that centre. You don't pay this fee to QM&T.
- 6) Where do I sit the exam if applying from abroad?
If applying from abroad, you can arrange to sit the exam at the British Council offices near you.
- 7) When are the exams?
Exams are held twice a year, in January or June.
- 8) When do I submit my assignments?
Assignments are submitted twice a year to QM&T, in November or April.
- 9) What is the word count for assignments?
Assignment word count is approximately 4500 words.
- 10) Where do I submit my assignments?
Assignments are submitted to QM&T. Your tutor marks your assignments which is then sent to CQI for moderation.

- 11) How do I contact my tutor?
By email or post. You can arrange to speak to your tutor. You would need to contact your tutor by email first to arrange a convenient time.
